LOVING WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

Concepción Cabrera de Armida

Retreat directed by Archbishop Luis M. Martínez – 1926

“Inspired by her fervent longing to be closer to God, Conchita made her annual retreat under the direction of Bishop Luis M. Martínez of Morelia, Mexico, from 1925 until 1936. In the course of making this retreat, the Lord bestowed upon her many wonderful mystical graces. Ultimately, the great sorrows of her life were all fruitfully recapitulated in Conchita’s Spirituality of the Cross, of which the Works of the Cross bear testimony.”

TRUE DEVOTION OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

In beautiful, practical terms, this book illuminates the difference the Spirit can and should make when He's given His proper place in your soul. Martinez explains how you should respond to the Spirit, how the Spirit helps you grow in virtue, and the characteristics of true love of the Spirit.

ONLY JESUS

The Sanctifier was not Archbishop Martinez's favorite work, nor, in the opinion of his publisher, La Cruz, was it his "masterpiece." Only Jesus enjoys that distinction. Of this work, the Servant of God Archbishop Martinez wrote: La Cruz [the Archbishop's publisher] states that it is my masterpiece. This enralls me, not on account of the praise, but Jesus being my soul's Beloved, my great satisfaction will be that what I have written about Him is my masterpiece, the work dear to my heart.

HOLY HOURS

"When you listen to a beautiful love song, do you examine each word? And if some lyrics manifest a pathos or a joy that goes beyond your own, do you turn down the volume, not to hear the melody? I doubt it. For those of us nowhere near the height or depth of Venerable Conchita's union with Jesus, there may be a moment when listening to her love song that we want to close the book because the pathos and joy of it is above and deeper than our own level. Yet we find that we can't drop it. Meditative reading of Holy Hours speaks to a place in our hearts we don't always want to go. Why? Perhaps because there is a part of us that does not want to be too intimate with Jesus. Conchita's spirituality is precisely a proof of the depth we all could go in experiencing the love of Jesus were we to surrender totally." - From the Preface by Ronda Chervin.

The compiler of this selection offers us carefully chosen "mystical" writings about the Eucharist.
